The secret of enamelling the skin being known only to Jules Jared, he honorably states that it differs from all other stan preparations, being perfectly innocent, producing the skin being particly innocent, producing the skin like thougherion and giving a soft, even texture to the skin, like thougherion and giving a soft, even texture to the skin, like thougherion and giving a soft, even texture to the skin, like thougherion and giving a soft, even texture to the skin, like thougherion and giving a soft, even the least meretricious appearance and the "Email de Paris," has received many let the agent of the existence of the state of th

PRILADELPHIA, November 20, 1884.

With entire satisfaction, used the "Email & Paris." Compelled, as I am, to the use of powders as stage requirements, I find that the "Email" produces all the brilliancy of yough and lifty-white, with the great and peculiar advantage of total harmlessness. It really adds to the softness and smoothness of the skin, without conveying the alightes meretricious idea.

Mons. Jules Japen—Sig.—I beg to thank you for you kindness in sending me a package of your "Email de Paris." I have suffered so much from the various white lotions, &c. which my theatrical profession obliges me to use, that I consider it a perfect benefaction to find a preparation which gives the necessary whiteness to the skin, and leaves the skin cooler and smoother than when it has nothing on it. I in tend to use it exclusively. With thanks, I am respectfully yours.

JARED'S EMAIL DE PARIS is no rulgar paste, paint, powder or ointment, but a most delicious preparation, which, by its healthful and purfying effect, brings forth freshness, color and beauty, giving both the complexion and testure of polished recy to the skin.
